

Langrish's dictation journey

- Dictation is within or at the end of the daily phonics
- The session delivered on whiteboards (reduce cognitive load on handwriting)
- Cognitive load further reduced through use of images to scaffold sentence
- Draw on current text or foundational learning completed where possible to create word/sentence

The sun is hot.

EYFS
&
KS1

- Dictation happening three times a week
- Record in the back of the English book
- One sentence, which focuses on spelling and phonics retrieval and correct use of punctuation
- Links should be made within the sentence to the text studied, foundation subjects currently studied or previously to ensure the reduction of cognitive load
- Support learners to remember the sentence through picture prompts/ Widgeits.
